

MORRIS COUNTY PUBLIC SAFETY TRAINING ACADEMY

is pleased to announce the following course offering

Law Enforcement Response to Wildlife Related Complaints

Date: September 21, 2009
Time: 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Tuition: No Fee

The Morris County Public Safety Training Academy is pleased to host this half day seminar conducted by the New Jersey Division of Fish and Wildlife, Bureau of Law Enforcement.

This half-day course will provide police officers with an overview of New Jersey's laws pertaining to Fish and Wildlife, while discussing common problems associated with these situations. Topics for discussion will include ways for the responding officer to handle nuisance wildlife complaints, common hunting related complaints, handling calls relating to pollution of the State's waterways, the State's laws on possession of exotic animals, along with an overview of the State's licensing requirements for hunting/fishing related activities.

Registration: Return registration form to the Academy via mail or FAX (973) 285-2971.
